Governance Policies

Introduction to Policy Package

How to use these policies

These policies have been created by and adopted by the Board

Governance Process and Board-Management Delegation

- These two (2) categories (Governance Policies and Board-Management Delegation) are rules for the Board's own performance and behaviour
- The Board will regularly judge and evaluate its own performance against the above-noted two (2) categories of policies

Ends and Executive Limitations

- These two (2) the categories (Ends and Executive Limitations) are the Board's instructions to the staff/organization working under the President/CEO
- The Board will judge and evaluate (over the course of a one year period) the President's performance against the above-noted two (2) categories of policies
- These two (2) the categories (Ends and Executive Limitations) are the Board's instructions to the staff/organization under the General Manager/CEO
- The Board will judge and evaluate (over the course of a one year period) the General Manager's performance against the above-noted two (2) categories of policies
- The performance expectations in the Ends and Executive Limitations policies are equivalent to organizational performance

Policy Design

- The policies are layered, i.e. the first policy in each of the four (4) categories (Ends – Section 1, BMD – Section 2, EL – Section 3, GP – Section 4) is a broad statement (or value or perspective)
- As the Board goes into the second layer of policies, the Board is further explaining/interpreting its instruction
- The benefit of this policy design is that the first policy layer covers all possible topics or issues, even if a particular issue is not specifically addressed at the second level

Use of these Policies

- All Board members must know all of these policies because when working on any particular issue, the Board will usually need to refer to more than one of the attached policies

Governance Policies

- It is crucial to good governance that all Board members be familiar with all of Governance policies

The Board will instruct the President/General Manager through written policies that:

2. Describe organizational situations and actions to be avoided (Executive Limitations) allowing the President/General manager to use any reasonable interpretation of these policies.
  - a. Ends Policies: The Board will develop policies instructing the President/General Manager to achieve certain results, for certain customers, at a certain worth or cost. All issues that are not ends issues as defined here are means issues. Ends policies answer the following three (3) questions about what the organization will produce: “What Good? For Whom? And At What Cost?”
  - b. Executive Limitations Policies: The Board will develop policies that limit the latitude that the President/General Manager may exercise in choosing the organizational means. The Board is at all times the final arbiter of reasonableness, but will always judge with a “reasonable person” test rather than with interpretations favored by Board members or by the Board as a whole. The Board will judge this at every meeting during a Board monitoring session and report their judgment.
  4. The Board will determine the frequency and method of monitoring the policies that instruct the President (Ends and Executive Limitations) and will normally use a routine schedule, as follows:

2. Honoraria monthly maximum amounts as of May 1, 2016 shall be as follows:

Director            20 hours/month            =            $325.00

3. If a member of the Board of Directors is not in attendance for a meeting (Regular or General) for reasons deemed unacceptable by the Honoraria Sub-Committee, the following deductions will be applied per offence:

  - c. Half of one month honorarium per mandatory board development event

4.11 Tendering Policy

The tendering process must be adhered to by the Board of Directors as stated in the following policies;

5. The selection of the successful bid need not be based solely on price and subject to any privilege claimed by the Board of Directors.
6. The bids should be in writing on company letterhead and be submitted by the deadline stated by the Board.
